As rowing is a water based sport it is essential that students are proficient swimmers and be confident in the water. Capsizing of boats can occur to rowers at all levels, but those learning the sport are more likely to experience this. Coaches will be in motorised boats to provide support for rowers.

I certify that.....(insert student's name)

Bundaberg Rowing Club Membership Fees

Affiliation fees for the 2012 rowing season have been set by the Bundaberg Rowing Club.

All fees are to be paid at the finance office at Shalom College.

Cheques are to be made payable to Shalom College.

The school will forward all fees due for Shalom Rowing to the Bundaberg Rowing Club.

There is an insurance component for each of the Bundaberg Rowing Club membership fees.

All rowers must have this cover prior to commencing the rowing program.

Students will not be able to row unless they are financial members.

Membership type

Bundaberg Rowing Club has various types of membership.

To row in the local Interschool competition (up to and including Head of River Regatta 2012) costs $120.

Junior competitive Membership costs $265 and entitles the rower to use the Bundaberg Rowing Club facilities until the end of the calendar year ie. 31/12/2012

Shalom Rowing recommends rowers initially pay the fees for local season ie. $120

If a student pays for the full season ie. $265 and then elects not to row past the Head of River Regatta, the Bundaberg Rowing Club may not refund the 'unused' membership.

Shalom Rowing will collect the additional membership fees in May 2012 if the rower elects to 'row-on' until the end of the year.

Please select the level of membership required and fees enclosed

Rowing to Head of River only $120

Rowing to end of 2012..... $265
